

GGM NEWSLETTER August 2023

Hello to all our readers. We hope this newsletter finds you well and encourages you in what God is doing through the power of the Gospel worldwide. Some of the ways this can be done are through one-on-one conversations, tract distribution, and open-air proclamation. We do all three while training others to do the same. In these confusing times, God's anchor is His revealed truth: the Bible.

The truth will radically change people; it will take a helpless soul and give them hope; it will take a person covered in the cloud of death and give life; it will take a person paralyzed by fear and provide them with peace, some caught in the claws of addiction can be freed. These different descriptions explain one reality: being freed from various sins by the power of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. In this newsletter, you will get a harvest field update and individual updates on our current leaders, where they preach, and how you can pray for them. Thank you for financially supporting and praying for our ministry to the lost.

When you get to heaven, a person you never knew will run up rejoicing that you were faithful to advance the Gospel in their life. You will be puzzled because you have never met the person until the divine dots are connected, and you realize they were a person who was converted to Jesus by the faithfulness of the team here at Gospel of God Ministries, communicating how a person is born again. We all work on one big team as we watch God do this excellent conversion work through our efforts together.

Leaders And Their Corners Of The Harvest Field

Bryan Braddy is a leader and the board's vice chairman at Gospel of God Ministries. He is also building a new home right now- pray for that process for him and the family. He preaches at the NC State games in the fall and other local events in Raleigh, NC. He is a full-time employee of Muter Construction company. Bryan has a natural gift from the Lord to communicate the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Pray for him as he remains faithful in the Triangle area and that his faith and sharing will produce much fruit for the kingdom.

Ken Cheeseman primary focus in the harvest field is his local Abortion Mill every week. This is a challenging ministry, but through the faithfulness of Ken and the team of people who go with him, Babies' lives have been saved. You can also find him on the NC State campus, sharing in between running his carpet cleaning business. He is also a pastor of Christ Reformed Fellowship in Garner, NC. The power to transform a life is found in God's word preached, shared one-on-one, or communicated in other ways. Ken is an example of using God's word in all three modes.

Tom Cabral lives near Fort Myers, Florida, and goes out several times a week to share the Gospel in downtown Fort Myers and the local colleges in the area. He has been arrested several times for his faith in Fort Myers, but the Lord granted him victory in all the cases, and he now preaches unhindered in Fort Myers. Tom has a passion for everyone to hear and understand the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Pray for his efforts in his corner of the harvest field and for encouraging laborers to join him during his outreach events.

Joe Toy moved to the Triangle area about two years ago to enter semi-retirement. He has almost 40 years of preaching and sharing the Gospel in the Open-Air. He is a workhorse for the Kingdom; even though he is in his sixties, there is not much slowing down. He preaches almost daily in the Triangle areas; Colleges, Bus stops, Abortion Mills, Downtown Raleigh, and local Sporting Events. He brings a wealth of experience and is a blessing to all the preachers, young and old, in the area. Pray for his travel as he travels around America and abroad to train young evangelists.

Peter Firth is retired and wants to use the rest of his life sharing and preaching the Gospel with the lost in the Triangle area. He and his wife run a small company that sells the products he makes on his woodturning machine. They have recently left their home church Open Door to serve a church revitalization in Wake Forest, NC, called Covenant Hope Church. His corner of the harvest field is the Abortion Mill, Downtown Wake Forest, and significant events in Raleigh, NC. Pray for Peter to remain faithful and for God to make Him faithfully fruitful as he does.

Zack Braddy's main corner of the harvest field is the Abortion Mill in Raleigh, along with events and college campuses in the triangle area when he gets time. He started his own landscaping company Braddy's Lawn Care, in Wake Forest, NC, so if you have any landscaping needs in the Triangle, reach out to him, and he will take care of you. Pray for him to balance his time wisely and remain faithful to exercise all the gifts God has given him.

Johnny Santos' primary focus is the Red Bulls Soccer Stadium in New Jersey. It can hold up to 25,000 screaming soccer fans. His church takes a team to home games to communicate the Gospel through preaching, distribution of tracts, and one-on-one conversations. The New Jersey and New York Metro area is a vast harvest field- 26 million people combined-; pray for Johnny and his church to remain faithful to communicating the Gospel truth in the New Jersey and New York Metro area and that much fruit will come from their faithfulness.

Sean Keefe's primary focus is the bar district on Friday nights in Raleigh, NC. God has seen fit to do some amazing things through this team of faithful Christians. One of them, David Mainsmith, has recently gone to be with the Lord. He will be missed, but his example of proclaiming Christ until the end encouraged everyone who knew him. Pray for his widow Nancy Mainsmith as she adjusts to life without David. Also, pray for someone to fill his spot on the team. I will be interviewing Sean on this month's Truth That Transforms Podcast tune in to hear some of the stories from the Friday night team—you don't want to miss it.
