

As I write this introduction to our first quarter newsletter, we are turning the page on our tenth year of official ministry here at Gospel of God Ministries. We have seen a lot of changes take place in the world the past ten years.

America keeps going further down the path of the radical leftist agenda. Men are calling evil good and good evil. However, the Lord of Lords has given the call for us to go love and share this amazing Gospel, regardless of what we see and hear. Mark 16:15 "And He said to them, 'Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature.'"

Be encouraged! We have seen God open doors to preach the Gospel on a new campus here in North Carolina and we also have a new leader who is an elder with Christ Our Hope Church in New Jersey. In this newsletter, you will read our harvest field report, my reflections on ten years of ministry, the vision for the next ten years, and some other Kingdom things that are happening this year.

Ten Years Behind – Tommy Waltz

I loaded the U-haul up, shut the door, and kissed our family and love ones goodbye. My wife and I set out on a journey in 2006 that God is still leading us on. We had a baby in hand, a baby on the way, $1,000 dollars, and no job. I remember praying that day on my drive to North Carolina, “I want to serve You. Please give me the strength, peace, and wisdom I need to do it well.” Gospel of God Ministries would not be what it is today without the countless people whom God has put in my family’s life to help us a little further on the journey. Thank you!

We have seen friends forsake the faith once and for all delivered to the saints. We have lost a child before either he or she could be born. We have seen sudden deaths of friends. We have faced sickness. We have seen young men blaze like a firework to fade away in a few months. We have seen divisive men split churches. However, through all of this our faithful God has given us complete peace and strength to remain faithful through it all.

We have seen grown men furious because they were unwilling to turn from their idols that they love. People have suppressed truth, and turned away and cursed at the God that gives them life. We have had people threaten to kill us. We have been cursed at, spit on, we have had coffee thrown on us, we have had a weapons waved around in our faces, we have had people knock our Bibles from our hands and throw them in the trash, we have had objects thrown at us, but through all this whirlwind of events God has given complete peace, wisdom, and strength to remain faithful.

I -personally- had a woman who was demonically possessed growl at me, a man die right behind me while preaching, a Satanist preaching from the satanic bible right near me trying to convert people to worship Satan, a witch curse me, and threatened to harm me. I had a drunkard spit beer on me and I have seen pastors almost get in a fight with metal pipes in front of their church- not going to name the country- don’t ask. I have talked to men who claim to be women and women who claim to be men, but through all God has given complete peace, wisdom, and strength to remain faithful.

I have seen people broken of sin and on the verge of suicide cry out for Jesus to save them. I have seen a mom either pregnant with her baby girl or boy with tears dripping through her fingers, as her hands were cupped to her face, look up and say, “thanks so much for reminding me of the truth.”

I have seen lost people who have lived in Christian homes their entire lives be confronted with their sin and cry out for Christ to save them. I have had conversations with people down and out who just needed a meal and a listening ear. I have sat at the bedside of dying saints as they said their last words, “thank you Jesus!!” I have seen the death of lost men who had to be strapped to their beds because of the fear of death. Still through all of this God has given complete grace, peace, wisdom, humility, and strength to remain faithful.

We as a team here at Gospel of God Ministries have preached and encouraged Christians in the Gospel in America, Haiti, Scotland, England, Nicaragua, Brazil, and the Middle East. Nevertheless, through all these things, I still fail my kids by getting frustrated at times, I am not the romantic my beautiful wife deserves, I still suck at throwing a softball - yes throwing a softball, I still have way to many typos in my articles and newsletters, I drive our editors crazy. I annoy my girls with stupid dad jokes. I need to serve my church family better, I could pray more, and memorize the scriptures more. I am still a coward when it comes to sharing my faith at times- especially with the ones I love the most- that’s crazy I know, but through all God has reminded me, I am a fragile broken man in need of God’s grace, truth, and wisdom.

Ten Years Ahead

The next ten years are going to be focused on taking the foundation we have laid over the past ten and to spread our mission, vision, and values all over the nation and the world. We have eight solid leaders who represent six different churches in North Carolina, New Jersey, and South Carolina.

Within five years we desire to train one evangelist inside of 2% of the healthy churches in America. That is around 72 evangelists trained and sent out of their local churches to share the Gospel in their corner of the harvest field.

Once we begin to reproduce what we are doing this will grow exponentially. Cont...

Proclaiming the Gospel to Transform Lives

A book I wrote will finally be out this year. The title is, “Into The Harvest Field.” It is written with you in mind. I want the true Gospel to motivate you to share and to leave the fruit up to the Lord of the harvest. We also have a new website coming out soon and we hope you take advantage of the content that will be made easily available.

The Gospel of God is truly the good news of peace that every person on earth needs. Thank you for allowing us to take it to those who need it the most the last ten years. We look forward to what God will do through Gospel of God Ministries the next ten years. We are excited about you being a part. Go proclaim the Gospel to see a life transformed. Remember, the truth worth proclaiming is the truth that transforms.
