

We are over half way through the year, and God continues to show His faithfulness to His creation. This newsletter is going to introduce you to some of what GGM has to offer you in training. We will also introduce our new leader, and will give a brief harvest field report in this newsletter.

We have taken the past six months to update our website and to make more of our training curriculums easily available to all. As we remain faithful to the Gospel, our heart's desire is to train as many as we can to go out to proclaim this Gospel to see a life transformed.

Paul gives the importance of the heart of the Gospel in 1 Corinthians 15:3-4, which says, "For what I received I passed on to you as of first importance that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day according to the Scripture." We want to remain faithful to this Gospel and hope you do too, regardless of the cost.

Learn What We Have To Offer

One of our leaders, Sean Keefe, said that he searched many tracts but that many of them did not explain in detail the doctrine of God and the doctrine of man. So, we decided to release tracts to cover these two doctrines over a two-year period. After releasing our tract on the doctrine of God last year, this year we have added our tract on the doctrine of man.

We want to keep the front simple. The God tract has a black background with the word “God” in white letters. People think it is a bumper sticker, and we give out as many as we take with us every time we go out witnessing. Here is a picture. You can find the inside content of the tract at:

gospelgm.com/tracts/

We have other tracts that are card size and booklet tracts as well.

Our New Leader Johnny Santos

I was born and raised in Brazil. I came to New Jersey in 2010 with my wife Ana and stepdaughter Thaynara. Although I was born and raised in a Christian family, I became a genuine follower of Christ in 2010 after the conversion of my wife. For over five years we served in a Portuguese-speaking church, where we also completed theological training. Currently, I work in the construction industry where I own and operate my company.

I joyfully serve as an elder at Christ Our Hope Church in Lyndhurst, NJ, while also being a leader here at GGM. My desire is to see the gospel of Jesus Christ proclaimed to all people groups, through the faithful witnessing of the church. I believe the proclamation of the Gospel is what will transform a life. Our church is beginning to publicly witness for Christ in our city every month. Christ Our Hope Church:

The one we released this year covers the doctrine of man. It uses the acrostic F.R.E.E. to explain how man is fashioned by God and ruined by sin. The two “E’s” tell of the redemption God brings man. Christ exchanged His life for our sin, and now we should extend redemption to those who need it.

The tract is white to represent the purity of God, and the word “man” is black, representing the sinful nature of man. Sean Keefe also helped come up with the color concepts on this tract.

Our prayer is that this paper missionary will go to many sinful souls and that the Holy Spirit will convict them of sin, righteousness and judgment. You can find the inside content of the tract at

Our First Court Case– Chancellor William Woodson

For the first time in fifteen years of ministry we had to bring litigation against N.C. State University and Chancellor William Woodson. Paul Roepnack, one of our leaders, was preaching at a local college football game and was told that he could neither be passing out Gospel literature nor be preaching the Gospel on the public sidewalk.

As all the leaders are trained to do, he videoed the whole event and filled out all the details of the event on our police encounter form in our leadership policy manual. We presented all the evidence to the Center for Religious Expression, and Nathan W. Kellum took our case.

He won the case! This was a huge win for freedom of speech and religious expression in the state of North Carolina. We now have the freedom this fall to preach the Gospel without harassment from the N.C. State officials. Nathan and his team worked very hard on this case and God gave a great victory. It trudged on for over six months. However, it is now over. Praise God for this victory!
