

April, 2020 GOSPEL OF GOD MINISTRIES

Harvest Field Report

As I write this I am listening to Steven Delopoulos' song, Another Day. I am reminded how powerful the Gospel is and how it invades every form of art that this amazing world knows. Steven's words at the end of his song are "Here's two colors, mixed and swirled with wood and blood together twirled goodbye my friends, today I'm dead to resurrect and change the world."

These words speak to what we have in the resurrection of Christ. A resurrection from the debt and bondage of sin. We can neither pay for it on our own or free ourselves from it's deadly grasp. As we stare at the glare coming from our phones, computers, and TV screens, we see the effects of sin perverting God's beautiful image everywhere we turn. Headlines bombard our senses with breaking news on COVID-19 as updates on vaccine hopes, stimulus checks, and the personal paycheck protection plan press for our attention.

All these headlines are just delayed hopes that can only be fulfilled in the resurrection, which can free us from the deadly enemy of sin. This newsletter will bring hope to you because of the God that is still at work in His world by resurrecting the dead to life.

We will have an update from our trip to Miami, Florida to preach at this years Super Bowl from pastor Johnny Santos from Christ Our Hope Church; I will give a brief update on Gospel of God Ministries as a whole; and you will learn what we are offering to all who want to become a monthly champion with our ministry.

As a whole, we are continuing to adjust to how rapidly things are changing here in America because of COVID-19. I hope by the time you are either reading this newsletter on an online PDF, or holding it in your hands flipping through the printed copy, that the majority of Americans that have been unemployed are back to work. Everyone has been affected by this unwelcomed (COVID-19) guest. Here is my article, My Introspective Nine Point (COVID-19) Road Trip, click here to read. It is my prayer- as I hope it is yours- that God would bring revival in Christians' hearts and awakening throughout all the American cities, big and small, and the world as a whole. We have had to change our preaching locations because street festivals have been shut down, colleges campuses are closed, and sporting events have all been canceled. We have literally become street preachers. We have been preaching on the busy street corners as the cars rush towards red lights to stop. Some of our leaders have been preaching in front of their neighborhood Walmart's. They have had us there asking the pertinent question, are you ready? Everyone has death on the mind. Please pray for our leaders as we remain focused on giving out this amazing Gospel by proclaiming the truth to people who are paralyzed by the fear of death.

Another street corner where we continue to pound back the forces of hell is along the street that stretches in front of one of our local abortion mills. A few weeks ago Selena had mercy on her baby and did not abort her beautiful child. Let me share a little of Selena's story.

Selena's Story

As she came in, one of the sidewalk counselors offered her a little packet that we have put together for mommas who are abortion minded. She rolled the window down and gladly took the packet and the conversation began. I had the privilege just to pray silently as two dear believers ministered the truth of the word of God to her. One is a leader here with GGM, Dr. Bill Roach, and the other was a local Christian who we have ministered with in front the mills in Raleigh, NC for the past eight years. My wife even got into the ministry action by speaking with Selena on the phone. We had someone from the pregnancy support center barge in and tell the young lady she could...

come back and abort her baby tomorrow, if she wanted. Yeah! You heard it right! A lady from a pregnancy support center said that. Yikes! She barged in and told Selena she had three options, foster care, adoption, and abortion. Note to self here, Selena was coming to the abortion mill to murder her baby; I don't think for one second that she did not know that was one of her options. The lady from the pregnancy support center left out the most obvious option, that Selena should keep the baby and become a repentant, faith-filled Jesus follower, who fears the almighty, triune God who gave this precious gift.

My wife has been in contact with Selena, and she has thanked us for being there that day as well as thanking Melanie for reaching out to her via phone and text message. We look forward to the birth of this young image bearer one day as a testimony to God's goodness and faithfulness to the proclamation of the truth. Go proclaim the Gospel to see a life transformed.

Johnny Santos—Super Bowl Update Interview

Why should someone who has never shared their faith in the open air come to a big event like the super bowl to share their faith in Jesus?

In short, it will have a lasting spiritual impact on you. The super bowl outreach made a great impact on me. I was not only able to minister but I was also ministered too. I was able not only to proclaim the message of salvation, but I also heard the same message. Everyday we need to be reminded that the power of salvation rests in Jesus. The past outreach in Miami confronted and encouraged me. I was confronted in the sense that I was not ready as I thought I was. Showing that we all have growing to do. And this was a wonderful thing. Because I was humbled by the fact that there are many good, spirit filled open-air preachers out there and some are young.

How would you encourage other Pastors and Christians to share their faith in the open air?

As Pastors and leaders we must pray that God would awaken and encourage our own hearts for this God given task of sharing the Gospel on the streets. We must seize every opportunity to encourage the church to share their faith. We can use prayer meetings, missions moment, workshops and the pulpit to encourage, remind, and teach the church about this God given task. Above all things, we need to persevere in prayer. Another helpful tool that has been good for Christ Our Hope Church, is our partnership with GGM and similar likeminded ministries.
