

Well, another year is closing, and we have had the privilege of taking the Gospel of hope all over this Nation. We have flown and shared the Gospel from coast to coast this year. We have been a part of God, putting his providence on display right in front of others' eyes. In this newsletter, you will get a harvest field update, meet someone who benefitted from our training, and I will share our ten-year vision as a board.

I was reading John 18, and was just amazed how Jesus interacted with people from all walks of life. Jesus constantly reviews what is being said in a conversation to Him. Review does two amazing things in a conversation. One, it shows people he was listening. Two, for Jesus—a majority of the time—he used their own words to remind them of the truth. Here is an example of the master teacher at work.

John 18:37-38: "Therefore, Pilate said to Him, "So You are a king?" Jesus answered, "You say correctly that I am a king. For this purpose, I have been born, and for this, I have come into the world: to testify to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to My voice." Pilate said to Him, "What is truth?"

John 18:38

Pilate said to him, "What is truth?" After he had said this, he went back outside to the Jews and told them, "I find no guilt in him."

A review of what Pilate said by Jesus brought Pilate to ask the most critical question that any human can ask. What is truth? In a crazy chaotic world, people need to listen to what the Savior said to Pilate now more than ever. Unfortunately, Pilate missed it that day. However, the leaders here at Gospel of God Ministries will share until we go to be with Jesus. Read again the Saviors words, "Everyone who is of the truth listens to My voice."

Two Things:

1. Christians have the honor to believe in God's revealed objective truth.
2. They listen/read what He has said and obey.

When is the last time you have taken a conversation in the direction of the truth of the Gospel? Take my challenge. Do it this Christmas season; you will not regret it. In the middle of all the shopping and family gatherings, share the true meaning of Christmas. Apply the above two points. Listen and review what is being said to you. Then give the amazing Gospel!

Our ten-year vision will be implemented into three different phases. As a board here at GGM, we are going to be breaking our Nation into six districts. North East, South East, North Midwest, South Midwest, North West, and South West. Phase one is within three and half years; we will strive—by the Lord's will—to have a GGM leader in all six districts. Phase two is within six years to establish another hub of shaping believers, sharing the Gospel, and supporting the local church in the South West district. Phase three is to establish four hubs within the six districts of shaping believers, sharing the Gospel, and supporting the local church within ten years.

The heart of man plans his way, but the LORD establishes his steps. (Proverbs 19:6) We know it is the heart of God for us to share His good news, but the Lord will have to establish our steps to make sure this plan will succeed. Thank you for partnering and praying to this end; it is a vision that only God can fulfill. It is my hope and prayer at the end of ten years, all of us can look back and glorify God on what He has done because this was not built on one man's charisma or clever growth strategy, but the faithfulness of God to bless because it is His heart to see people saved. Until next year, go out and share the Gospel because the truth worth sharing is the truth that transforms. Here are a few pictures from our travels this year.

Jeremiah 20:9: “But if I say, “I will not mention his word or speak anymore in his name,” his word is in my heart like a fire, a fire shut up in my bones. I am weary of holding it in; indeed, I cannot.”

Being trained by this ministry in evangelism helped affirm a call I didn’t know could be answered. The training and verses like Jeremiah 20:9 pointed me to the Word—the Word we are called to share with the world! The verse in Jeremiah unveiled a new passion in my heart towards the ministry of evangelism. I was living life with this “fire” I would seek to contain, not out of shame, but out of misunderstanding. I’m thankful for a ministry that focuses on helping others understand a misunderstood calling. I praise the Lord for the patterns of evangelism shown in scripture and throughout history! This ministry “fans the flame!” (2 Timothy 1:6).

Believers are in a spiritual war and need to know how to “armor” (Eph. 6) up and use the sword! What makes this ministry different is that it makes you deny yourself, cut through the noise in your heart and world, and depend on God to use you to proclaim His Word. You stand face to face with the war beyond sight. You stand in the frontline for the church, stepping into the world for the sake of the gospel! It’s an honor to be a soldier and fight for our king in this way! We are fishermen, soldiers, evangelists, and bond-servants all at once!

John Saw Some Problems With Catholicism

James and I were sharing the Gospel on Arizona State University campus, and we started a conversation with John. He saw the issues of confessing sins to priest and praying to dead saints; however, he still did not know the Gospel. He listened to us eagerly and had a lot of great questions concerning the Bible.

When we shared that we wanted to give him a Bible, he was very excited to take it to begin reading it. Would you please pray for John that he would read the word of God and be transformed by it? Also, pray as James will continue to follow up with John to get him plugged into a good church.

Loving Your Neighbors

Here is a tangible way that my family and I will strive to be a blessing to those less fortunate than ourselves this Christmas season. We will make a few care packages and keep them in our car, and when we see those in need in our community at our stoplights, we are going to give them out.

Some toiletry items, snacks, water bottles, a blanket, Bible, Gospel tract, and some warm socks; remember to keep them in your car, or you will not hand them out. It is just a tiny way to get the whole family involved in tangibly loving people and sharing the Gospel.
